Notice Regarding Filing of Lawsuit in the United States Against the Company and Its Subsidiaries

Daikin Industries, Ltd. (the "Company") hereby announces that the Company, and its U.S. subsidiaries, Daikin Comfort Technologies North America, Inc., Daikin Applied Americas Inc. and Thermal-Netics LLC (collectively the "US Subsidiaries"), as well as many other companies, have been named as defendants in a lawsuit filed in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan (the "Lawsuit") on March 20, 2026 (local time).

The US subsidiaries were served with the complaint on and after March 30, 2026. The Company has not been served with the complaint, but based on the public docket, the Company discloses the following:

1. Cause of Action and Circumstances Leading to Filing of Lawsuit

The plaintiff has filed the Lawsuit as a provisional class action on behalf of those who purchased HVAC equipment sold in the United States on or after January 1, 2020, alleging that the defendants conspired to artificially increase prices for HVAC equipment, thereby causing damages.

2. Outline of Person Who Filed Lawsuit

Alyssa Berg (Location: Minnesota, United States of America), on behalf of a putative nationwide class

3. Description of Lawsuit

In the complaint, the plaintiff seeks damages and other relief from the defendants, but no specific amount claimed by the plaintiff has been disclosed.

4. Future Outlook

If the Company is served with the complaint, it will take appropriate action analyzing the content of the plaintiff's claims.

At this time, it is difficult to reasonably estimate the impact of the Lawsuit on the Company's business results. We will promptly disclose any matters that should be disclosed in the future.
