

Contents

Introduction Noriyuki Inoue

Prologue: Global Daikin	1
◆ Technology and People Driving Foresight	2
◆ Anxieties and Surprises of the Acquired Company	3
◆ Practice of People-Centered Management in China	8
◆ Practicing People-Centered Management in the United States	9
Chapter I: Daikin DNA	15
◆ People-Centered Management	16
◆ Management Philosophy That Experience Engendered	21
◆ Changed Culture of Yodogawa	29
◆ Company That Shuns Restructuring	36
◆ Sharing a Dream	43
◆ Overseas Development	46
◆ Anchor in Diversity	51
Chapter II: Tracing the Origins of Daikin	57
◆ A Small Nail That Sticks Out	58
◆ Eating Out of the Same Pot	61
◆ Development of Fluorocarbon Gas for the Good of the Country	66
◆ Anguish of Laying Off Employees	71
◆ Departure from Family Management	78
◆ San-Kiri and Ni-Kyu	82
◆ Putting the Corporate Philosophy into Writing	86
Chapter III: Actual Site for People-Centered Management	95
◆ Comfortable Environment Leads to Low Employee Turnover	96
◆ Fast & Flat Management: Development of “ Urusara 7 ”	97
◆ Believe in Possibilities: Disabled Employees Play Major Role	106
◆ Confronting Adversity—Great East Japan Earthquake	117
◆ Genba Principle—the Frontlines of Sales	125

Chapter IV: Centrifugal and Cohesive Forces	131
◆ Global Corporate Culture	132
◆ Expanding Room for Development	135
◆ Localization	136
◆ Dreams—Room for Growth	137
◆ Sharing Dreams in Oahu	138
◆ Trust between Top Leaders	142
◆ Same Daikin Language throughout the World	147
◆ Bridge between Different Cultures	152
◆ From General Employee to Vice President	158
◆ Ability to Act at Worksites—From the Pilsen Plant to the Brno Plant in the Czech Republic	162
Chapter V: Growth through Hospitality	169
◆ Community Bonding through Traditional Dance	170
◆ Global Bon Dance Festival	174
◆ Daikin Orchid Ladies Golf Tournament in Okinawa	179
◆ Handcrafted Hospitality	182
◆ Surprise of VIPs	185
◆ Growth from Tears of Anguish	188
Chapter VI: Passing on Daikin DNA	193
◆ Company-Wide Support for Training Programs	194
◆ Training Conducted around the World	198
◆ Developing Top Leaders for the Next-Generation	200
◆ Overseas Meetings Held 10 Times a Year	204
◆ Ensuring Common Understanding of Issues	210
◆ Monozukuri is Developing People	214
Epilogue: Toward a Brighter Future	223
◆ Ten Years of Rapid Growth	224
◆ Nurturing a Sense of Crisis	226
◆ Air, Dreams, and People	230
• Appendices	236